REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art fails to show or suggest, either singly or in combination thereof, a head support device for supporting the head of a user in an upright position on a chair, the head support device comprising a panel having first and second sides with opposed edges, such that first and second edges are opposite one another, and the third and fourth edges are opposite one another, wherein the third and fourth edges extend outward at a juncture of the third and fourth edges and the first and second edges such that four flaps are defined. A fastening means is provided for removably fastening the first side of one of the flaps on the third edge to the second side of the other of the flaps on the third edge, and a fastening means is provided for removably fastening the first side of one of the flaps on the fourth edge to the second side of the other of the flaps on the fourth edge. A securing means is provided for removably securing the first side of the panel to the chair.

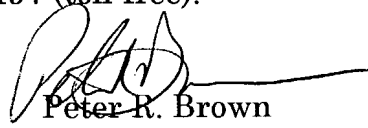

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
